

Distributor Warranty Summary New Manufactured Home Warranty

1. Servicing contractor will contact Intertherm authorized distributor for required warranty repair parts.
2. Distributor to sell parts to contractor unless contractor provides all necessary warranty information to file the warranty claim including equipment model number, serial number, homeowner information & address, date of occupancy, and warranty issue summary including specific component information.
3. Following warranty repair, submit warranty claim via Intertherm iWarranty system.
4. Distributor will receive parts and contractor labor credit following warranty submission. Issue labor credit to contractor

For further information contact Intertherm at 800-422-4328.

Register your unit

Warranty page

engineered for life™

Intertherm is a Rheem Manufacturing Product

*For full warranty information, please visit www.intertherm.net/warranty